Notes:

Please note these are estimated costs only, program costs are subject to change. Prices above are for the 3 week program.

Students participating in study abroad programs will be billed Main Campus UA tuition and fees based on a number of factors, including residency status, number of units offered in the study abroad program, and the guaranteed tuition rate. Online and Distance students should talk to their study abroad coordinator to confirm tuition rates.

UA Program Cost includes housing, orientation, activities, student support, excursions and other IAU fees. Breakfast and six dinners per week are included in homestay housing. No meals are included with the apartment option but students have access to a shared kitchen.

All students participating in a study abroad program will be enrolled in mandatory international health insurance and billed at a rate of $3.00 per day.
