UA Program Deposit /Study Abroad Fee Deferment Agreement

Eligibility Process

You may be eligible to have your program deposit billing delayed until your financial aid has been released. After you submit this form your Study Abroad Coordinator will inform you as to whether you qualify to have your program deposit billing delayed.

Eligibility Requirements

- Student must be enrolled as a degree-seeking undergraduate or graduate student at the University of Arizona.
- Student must have an EFC (Expected Family Contribution) of $8,000 or less on their most current FAFSA.
- Students who are veterans are eligible regardless of whether or not they've filled in a FAFSA. Please inform your program coordinator if you are a veteran.
- Student must submit this form to their study abroad coordinator by the study abroad program application deadline.

Billing and Payment Procedures

Program deposits/UA study abroad fees are non-refundable and will be billed in accordance with UA Bursar's tuition billing dates for the term for which the student has applied. Charges will be billed to the student's UA Bursar's account.

Withdrawal Policy

In the event that a student withdraws from a program after commitment, the student's UA Bursar's account will be charged in accordance with the appropriate withdrawal policy. Any charges will be placed on the student's account within 30 days of withdrawal.

By returning this completed and signed form I am authorizing SASE to defer billing of my study abroad program deposit/UA Study Abroad fee as applicable. Further:

- I understand the student deposit/UA Study Abroad fee will be billed to my student account and is nonrefundable.
- I agree to pay for my program deposit/UA Study Abroad fee on the due date following the posting of these items to my student account.
- I understand that after committing to a program I am responsible for paying the program deposit regardless of my participation on the program.
